LOVE AND ROMANCE

Chivalry lives as we celebrate true romance. Gallantry will be well rewarded and the graciousness of the ladies will be saluted with roses.

In honor of this tribute to romance you are invited to witness the marriage of these most special guests of the Festival.

Sir Larry Werner and Lady Julie Greenwood
Saturday, 4:00 pm in Folkestone Hall

Sir Doug Holzchuh and Lady Lori Lorenze will receive guests Saturday at 5:30 pm in the Blue Lion Courtyard

Sir Johnny Hunter and Lady Christine Carlson
Sunday, 5:00 pm in the Blue Lion Courtyard

To help in this celebration our good friends from  have sent their ambassadors. Keep an eye open Saturday for Sir Glenn Hanson, and Master Gregg Ellsworth on Sunday.

MOTHERS ARE SPECIAL PEOPLE

Mothers, if you need to nurse or diaper your baby, we have a special area for your privacy and comfort.

Look for the INFANT'S PAVILLION in the Children's Play-Village.

Be sure to visit the animals in the MN Zoo located in the Children's Play-Village, and the Como Zoo Petting Zoo located near Folkestone Hall.

Toast of the Day...
May we love as long as we live, and live as long as we love.

FOR YOUR JOURNEY HOME . . .

Exiting Routes
We trust you have enjoyed your stay here at the Renaissance Festival. To make sure that your memories linger, we suggest that you follow the exiting routes on the accompanying map. You will find that your journey home will be less congested if you use Highway 41 to Highways 5 or 7 to return to the Twin Cities. For those returning to Mankato or wishing to use 35W, use Highway 169. Follow Exiting Signs as you leave the Festival grounds and please drive safely.
