MIDEAST FOLKFEST

This weekend the Renaissance Festival presents a Mideast Folkfest. Explore the mysteries of the Middle East in a market-place setting. Look for the blue and red unicorn flags around the village. These mark the shops of craftspeople and food purveyors whose product is a of Mideast origin.

ENTERTAINMENT

Let the rhythm of the tribal drums weave its magic spell over you as 42 of the nation's finest Mideast dancers, male and female, gather at the Special Events pavillion to amaze and delight you at their traditional Mideast dance. Check the stage schedule below for a complete list of times.

CRAFTS

Visit the Hall of Masters and discover the flawless artistry of fine metalwork, crafted by our village artisans. Craft shops displaying the red and blue unicorn flags are a of Mideast origin as well, some offering demonstrations of their crafts.

FOOD & DRINK

Let the Blue Lion Tavern seduce your taste buds with an exotic array of Mideast delicacies: Tandori Chicken, Beef Kabobs and Paan Bread. Taste the other tempting Mideast foods available at the food booths marked by the red and blue unicorn flags.

VISIT FRIAR BUCK AND SQUIRE O'CONNOR

Be sure to stop by the Archery Booth in the Games Area Sunday, between 2 and 4 pm and take a shot at Friar Buck and Squire O'Connor from the magic talking box KOWB Radio! Shoot at their likeness on the target and if you hit a bullseye you will receive a coupon for one FREE TURKEY LEG! Please remember to shoot only at their likenesses... we promised to return Buck and O'Connor in one piece.

May your tent be full of flags, and your oasis full of camels!

FOR YOUR JOURNEY HOME . . .

Exiting Routes

We trust you have enjoyed your stay here at the Renaissance Festival. To make sure that your memories linger, we suggest that you follow the exiting routes on the accompanying map. You will find that your journey home will be less congested if you use Highway 41 to Highways 5 or 7 to return to the Twin Cities. For those returning to Mankato or wishing to use 35W, use Highway 169. Follow Exiting Signs as you leave the Festival grounds and please drive safely.

MY LORDS AND LADIES LADS AND LASSES

Be it known Good King Henry and his most Beautiful Queen Caroline proclaim this a time of Renaissance Revelry. All cares and woes are hereby banished from the village grounds and smiles are required apparel for all.

Be thee new to our village? There are certain rules of protocol thou shouldst be well acquainted with lest thee anger the nobility and find thyself in the stocks.

IN THE PRESENCE OF ROYALTY: Ladies curtsy and Lords doff thy hat and bow thee to the earth.

The King and Queen shouldst always be addressed as "Your Majesty." When asked "Is this not the King?" thou shouldst reply in a most hearty voice "YEA, VERILY, YEA!"

When asked "Is this not the Queen?" thou shouldst reply with proper feeling "YEA" (sigh). "YEA!" And thou must needs take care to never, never, never betch before the King. Let the King go first.

When thee finds thyself in the presence of the Lord High Sheriff of Nottingham and are asked if this is not the Sheriff thou wilt find it most natural to reply "YEA, (give the raspberries), YEA!"

The official cheer of the Renaissance is HUZZAH! (pronounced HA-ZAH). Shout HUZZAH to the King, HUZZAH to the Queen, HUZZAH to all the delights the day shall bring you.

TAKE CARE! Hold tight your young ones when you pass near the gypsies lest your loss become their gain.

And finally, remember a pedestrian must yield the way to a cart and horse; a cart and horse must yield the way to a noble's horse; and every-thing yields to an elephant.
