MY LORDS AND LADIES, LADS AND LASSES

Be it known, Good King Henry and his most Beautiful Queen Caroline proclaim this a time of Renaissance Revelry. All cares and woes be hereby banished from the village grounds, and smiles are required apparel for all.

Be thee new to our village? Thou shouldst be well acquainted with certain rules of protocol lest thee anger the nobility and find thyself in the stocks.

IN THE PRESENCE OF ROYALTY:

Ladies curtsy and Lords doff thy hats and bow thee to the earth.

The King and Queen shouldst always be addressed as, "Your Majesty."

When asked, "Tis this not the King?", thou shouldst reply in a most hearty voice, "YEA, VERILY, YEA!"

When asked, "Tis this not the Queen?", thou shouldst reply with proper feeling, "YEA, (sigh), YEA!"

And thou must needs take care to never, never, never, never belch before the King. Let the King belch first.

When thee finds thyself in the presence of the Lord High Sheriff of Nottingham and are asked if this 'tis not the Sheriff, thou will find it most natural to reply, "YEA, (give the raspberries), YEA!"

The official cheer of the Renaissance is HUZZAH! (pronounced HA - ZAH!). Shout HUZZAH to the King, HUZZAH to the Queen, HUZZAH to all the delights the day shall bring thee.

TAKE CARE! Hold tight thy young ones when thou passeth near the gypsies, lest thy loss becomes their gain.

And finally, remember a pedestrian must yield the way to a cart and horse; a cart and horse must yield the way to a noble's horse; and everything yields to an elephant.
