"In the service of His Majesty"

NUMBER V

SPORTING HOLIDAY

Competition reigns in events such as the Peasant Olympics and the Highland Games. Laugh with the peasants as they press, pull and run to win their prizes. Watch exciting tug-of-war exhibitions performed by the Min Dak Tug-of-war Association for the first time at the Festival. The University of Minnesota Fencing Club demonstrates the fine art of fencing throughout the day in Shepherd's Green.

Sunday Special Guests - KQRS

Huzzah & Welcome to John Lassman of KQRS. John will be at the Archery Booth from 1-3 pm on Sunday. Come test your skill at archery and win a turkey leg if you hit a bull's eye. The archery booth is run by Hope International, a non-profit organization.

TOAST FOR THE DAY

A Hearty Huzzah to the peasants
Who tug and fight in the games,
Which may bring them presents
And Laud their very names.

HALL OF MASTERS

This weekend features Potters, Prints and Wallhangings in an exhibit of the finest work of the Festival Artisans working in these media. Stop by to gaze and admire the pieces on display!
