ROMANTIC SERENADE

"If music be the food of love, play on!" Savor the feast of Renaissance song during special performances by our own madrigal and instrumental groups. Hear the Glastonbury Revelers, a talented a cappella musical group from Des Moines, Iowa, consisting of ten revelers. Sounds A'Peal, a twelve member baroque choir from area churches, performs music in four octaves of bells. Concentus Musicus, the Twin Cities' premier Renaissance performing ensemble, entertains all with melodious strains. Saturday is filled with excitement as Alfie Wolfran, a long time Festival participant, attempts to set a new Guinness World Record by kissing 5,000 people in eight hours! Stop at the Front Gate to offer Alfie your cheek and cheer him on to the newest World Record. Join in the Tournament of Love at the Special Events Pavillion at 12:30 and 3:30 daily. Sign Language Saturday features a variety of interpreted events. Check the stage schedule below for exact times. Other services include an information person and 2 floating interpreters for special requests (at the information booth near the track) and an interpreter at the Area 200 Follies (10:00 am. and 1:30 pm), and an interpreter at the Stocks (1:00 pm).

FRENCH FOOD FESTIVAL

Italy gave the gift of fine cuisine to France in 1533 when Catherine de Medici arrived from Florence to marry the heir to the French throne. Catherine brought with her many skilled Italian chefs and pastry cooks. Catherine's chefs and the staff of Marie de Medici, the bride of Henry IV, introduced new styles of cooking to France, forever changing French cuisine. While the French nobles enjoyed a delightful array of tantalizing foods, the country was slow in producing cookbooks of this new cuisine for ordinary households. As a result, peasants did not see much of a change in their daily fare of bread and soup during the Renaissance period.

Here in our Realm, peasants and nobles alike can feast on sumptuous foods during our French Food Festival. Enjoy:

- Raclette • Escargo • Crepes •
- Steamed Mussels • Scallops •
- Spinach Pie • Scones •

Marco Polo Marketplace

In the late 13th century, the merchant Marco Polo travelled extensively in the Middle East and the Orient. While a prisoner of war in Genoa, he dictated an account of his colorful journeys. The resulting book was copied and translated into many languages. Although the stories were widely disbelieved in Renaissance times, they have served as an inspiration to many through the centuries.

The Marco Polo Marketplace located in Cartwheel Cove includes artisans new to the Festival. Like Marco Polo, these honorable merchants have travelled far to trade their exotic wares. Look carefully! There are treasures for sale here to prove the stories you will tell of our village.
