HALL OF MASTERS

The Hall of Masters invites submissions in selected media from Festival craft participants for a new exhibit each weekend. This weekend's exhibit features Festival Masters and Festival Artisans, all media. To achieve the status of Festival Master or Artisan, craft participants must demonstrate proficiency in a chosen medium, exhibit original work for review and participate as good citizens of the Realm. The finest work of the Realm has been gathered for you to see at the Hall. No sales are made at the Hall; the keepers of the Hall will gladly answer questions or direct you to the location of the maker of any work on display.

CHOCOLATE FESTIVAL

Columbus brought chocolate to Spain in 1502 after his fourth voyage to the New World. Chocolate is made from beans native to tropical America. Columbus' bitter cocoa beans received an indifferent reception in the Old World. After tasting chocolate paste and drinks prepared by the Aztecs in 1519, Hernando Cortez brought more cocoa beans to Spain with the knowledge of how to prepare them.

The resulting chocolate concoction was well received in Spain. The country enjoyed a chocolate monopoly for nearly a century. Chocolate was not fully accepted in France until new French queens from Spain adopted chocolate as the official drink of the French court in the 16th Century.

Satisfy your cravings at our Chocolate Festival with an abundance of delectable desserts. Indulge on:

Marco Polo Marketplace

In the late 13th century, the merchant Marco Polo travelled extensively in the Middle East and the Orient. While a prisoner of war in Genoa, he dictated an account of his colorful journeys. The resulting book was copied and translated into many languages. Although the stories were widely disbelieved in Renaissance times, they have served as an inspiration to many through the centuries.

The Marco Polo Marketplace located in Cartwheel Cove includes artisans new to the Festival. Like Marco Polo, these honorable merchants have travelled far to trade their exotic wares. Look carefully! There are treasures for sale here to prove the stories you will tell of our village.
