Featured Entertainer: Elizabethan Syngers

The Elizabethan Syngers have been a fixture at the Minnesota Renaissance Festival since its founding in 1971. Our goal is not only to entertain, but to create an interest in music from The Renaissance, and to educate our Syngers and audience about its important place in music history. Our love for the Renaissance Madrigal and song is embodied in our mission statement: The Elizabethan Syngers are dedicated to preserving, promoting and performing music of and inspired by the Renaissance Period.

Castle Canine Creations
Booth #343

I have been around dogs all my life including training, showing and working as a small animal nurse for 8 years. In 2008 I decided to put my knowledge of dogs, their conformation and the many years of art and sewing classes to good use. I remembered all the things that I hated about the outfits I purchased for my dogs such as cheap fabric, poor craftsmanship, and poor fit and decided to design and make quality costumes for my canine friends. Now me and my husband William enjoy traveling around the country dressing as many dogs as we can. Lilly and Rocher my canine companions travel with me and entertain the patrons dancing, doing tricks and showing off their adorable personalities. We make quality harnesses, kilts, tutus, leashes and collars with fine trims, fun t-shirts and bandannas for your puppy. Come see us at booth 343 and have a wonderful day.
