200 Years in Music History

Was Luke Skywalker a secret musician? Can sound be scandalous? Does Selena Gomez owe her success to a medieval Pope? Why does a staff have five lines? Would we have rock music if we never invented the compass? Come find out!

Classic Characters

What do Shakespearean characters have in common with pop culture? Come join the Thrones of Swords Cast in a discussion of basic Shakespearean character archetypes, how we molded them into festival character with a Game of Thrones twist, and where you can find similar archetypes in pop culture today.

Improv 101

Learn how to "Yes, And..." all of your friends crazy ideas! Join experienced improv performers to learn about thinking on you feet and performing without a script. Learn warm ups, tips, and tricks for being off the cuff and ready for anything.

Choreographing a Fight

Do you remember a moment at the feetival where you encountered sword fighting between performers in the street? Did you know that every fight is carefully staged? If you have ever wondered how fights are choreographed and created at the Renaissance Festival, now is your chance to learn from seasoned stage combatants how we not only make it exciting for our audiences, but also safe for our performers.

Creating an Attraction for the Festival

A walking tour of several new and improved themed attractions such as the Throne of Swords, Palace Garden and Sherwood Forest/Fairywing Forest by the Scene Designers for the Festival.

Mermaid Story Time

Mermaid Cove would like to invite one and all to hear the lore of our Mermaids!

Chivalry and the History of the Joust

Join our jousters as they explain the Art of Chivalry and history of jousting.

Fairy Folklore

A deep look into the fairies of olde. A not so sweet and innocent history. Delve into the past of these creatures and learn why village folk were afraid and fascinated by these tiny creatures.

Renaissance Weapons and Armor

Come learn about everything from broadswords to rapers and chain mail to plate armor.

Commedia Dell'arte with I Arroganti

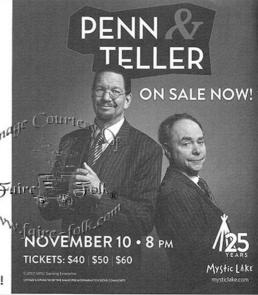

The troupe will help demonstrate behaviors of each mask, demonstrate slapstick, and explain how far and wide commedia's influence is in the world of theater.

All About Madrigals

The Elizabethan Syngers will provide a brief history of the Renaissance madrigal and its place as a landmark genre for the time. Musical examples will be provided.

Stop by any merchandise booth to purchase the new coloring book!
