

The Minnesota Renaissance Festival is the reproduction of an authentic 16th century European marketplace on harvest holiday. The cultures and customs of many lands are represented on a rolling, wooded 200 acres in the Minnesota River Valley, the largest outdoor theatre in the midwest.

Twenty-five miles southwest of the Twin Cities on Highway 169, floating banners beckon the traveler down Renaissance Lane. On entering Tower Gate, the sights, sounds and aromas of a bygone era captivate the senses. Visitors are entertained by characters in peasant homespun and regal velvets. Vendors of hearty food and drink hawk their wares as minstrels make music under the trees. And a stroll down any avenue reveals craftsfolk demonstrating the arts of long ago.

$4.25 adults at the gate; $3.75 adults in advance at all Fotomat locations (Monday through Friday only) and the Children's Theatre Company box office; $1.00 children ages 5 through 12; under 5 admitted free. Parking, all music and theatre and the "Carrousel of Horses" show included with admission. Festival hours are 10:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.
