~ HUZZAH & CHEERS FOR 25 YEARS ~

That's our call for celebration this year as we mark our silver anniversary; it's a remarkable achievement. Anniversaries are a time for reflecting, but beyond just looking back on the past and the changes we have weathered. This is a time to note our laudable progress and plan for the continuing journey.

From a humble, muddy beginning in 1971 to a world-class entertainment in just 25 years is surely worth noting. (Disney made a much bigger fuss but despite our tasteful understatement, we are certainly no less proud!) Through the inspiration, unbounded creativity, dedication and simple perspiration of thousands of people, the Minnesota Renaissance Festival has become the benchmark of the Renaissance Festival (Who could have even imagined such a thing in 1971?)

We look back with pride and gratitude at the wonderful partnership we have enjoyed with our civic supporters. From the earliest years, Chaska and Scott Counties civic organizations with others have worked with us in creating perhaps the most generous civic-business synergy in the business. Their participation has guaranteed us wonderful staffing and participation. They have benefitted with increased community exposure and support.

Our unique strength has certainly come as a gift from the many talented and devoted performers and artisans who have given their all to take us beyond the ordinary for so many years. The unnamed and unnumbered many who have shared their dreams and visions, hours, lifetimes, joys and disappointments with us are all remembered here. Many thanks.

My deepest bow to our tireless staff, to veterans and novices alike, who never allow themselves to be usual. Because of you, we continue to flourish, grow and build upon the magic you are able to sustain year after year.

My vision, which will surprise none of you, is for all of this and more. We continue to redefine excellence and reach beyond the expected!

TO ALL OF YOU....

You all know that we are a perpetually changing and evolving group here at the office. It takes any new relationship time to adjust. You'll notice some familiar names and lots of new ones. Bonnie Jacobson, as general manager, inspires and maneuvers her staff to new heights of productivity and creativity.

The fearsome threesome in marketing continues to WOW the corporate sponsors, Tina Sigman, Melissa Johansen and Diana Buckmann.

Sales is dynamic this year with Michelle Pattyn continuing at the helm with Susan Klimek and Marty Moore implementing some exciting new programs and achieving impressive numbers over last year.

CKC's Stacy Bloom is interviewing by the hundreds as I type this article. She is seeing I-9s in her sleep!

Ladies Lois Hendries and Norma Jurek return as the craft department (by far the largest data base in the company). Norma also assists with the food independents and coordinates the games area; be kind to my lady!

The food and beverage department runs smoothly???? with Greg Iacarella back by popular demand, Dennis Erp assisting and our beloved chef Ron Patterson. Greg is also in charge of concessions; so please be sure tell him how beautiful the tee shirts and mugs are this year.

Please applaud Janell Stevens our new entertainment director. The illustrious Gary Parker returns as artistic director. They are currently conducting Renaissance

The site is a happening place these days with Kathy Pedersen as Site Manager, Cindy Gess, grounds manager, Chrisine Brown and Nancy Schultz, landscape beautification, Jeannie Bautz, costume director and our mechanical/carpentry department with Joe Frey, Harvey Kittleson and Brent Jones.

Brian Kemkes continues to create magic as our artistic designer of both graphic art, landscape and building designs.

The front office staff attempts to keep things running smoothly. Rachel Boettcher is our cheerful receptionist this year and Michelle Person our administrative assistant. The accounting staff consists of Kurt Schneider, manager, and Cindy Weikle, payroll/receivables. Jean Wells (that's me) continues as office manager.

Special mention goes out to our dedicated enthusiastic seasonal staff both at the office and the site, without whom we could not stay afloat!

JOIN IN THE PARADE

* Diana Buckmann, Parade Coordinator

Everyone loves a parade, especially MRF entertainers! Summer has arrived and community festivals, annual summer events and of course The Aquatennial have asked the Minnesota Renaissance Festival to join in their parade. We are in search of entertainers, who enjoy interacting with a lot of people and love to have a good time, to participate once again. Mary Rohe will be the on-site parade leader. If you have any questions or interests in getting involved, please call the office and ask for Diana. The parade schedule is as follows:

Grand Old Day, St. Paul	June 4
11:00 AM
Oakdale Sommerfest	June 23
6:30 PM
Grand Parade, Annondale	July 4

Silent Craft Auction

Attention all crafters!!! We will once again be holding a Silent Craft Auction on the Art of Hands weekend. The auction will be held in the Pavilion on Saturday, September 9 from 9am to 4pm. The Craft Emergency Relief Fund (CERF), a non-profit organization which provides financial and in-kind support to crafters suffering career-threatening emergencies, and the Minnesota Museum of American Art will be the beneficiaries. Craft artists are asked to consider the benefits that these organizations can provide for other artisans in need. Please consider making a donation of one or more of your works for the silent auction. With your support, the 1995 Silent Craft Auction will be bigger and better than ever! Further information about the Art of Hands weekend and the Silent Auction will be mailed in the Craft Spring Packet.

MARKETING TOP 10

The top 10 things currently overheard in the Marketing Department by Tina, Melissa and Diana.

10. Alfie wants to kiss how many people in his quest for a new Guinness World Record?
9. Yes, Coca-Cola has signed on as sponsor for another year and we are keeping our fingers crossed for Pabst, Canandaigue, Guinness and Watney's along with many others.
8. Let's go over this again. In Highland Games, how many times does that caber have to turn?
7. What weekend should we have the silver car giveaway?
6. What should we make Caro Emmer, the new marketing intern starting on June 5th, do first?
5. Is there ever an end to media ticket trades?
4. OK. We have Flower, Wine, Mid-East, Highland Games, Tea, Bread and Chocolate. Does that cover Festival within a Festival every weekend?
3. Is there going to be a 25th Anniversary Book?
2. You want to spend $10,000 on what???
1. The brochure will be done when it's done!!!

New Special Events in 1995

* Diana Buckmann, Marketing Associate

The 25th Anniversary season of the Minnesota Renaissance Festival will be filled with an array of brand new events and activities. The highlight this year is the new Festival within a Festival program. Each weekend will feature special demonstrations, seminars, displays, sampling opportunities, and exciting hands-on activities that you will not want to miss!

1995 Festival Within A Festival Themes

August 12-13 Flower Festival	September 9-10 Tea Time
August 19-20 Wine Gala	September 16-17 Bread Festival
August 26-27 Mid-East Mirage	September 23-24 A Celebration in Chocolate
September 2-4 1st Annual Highland Games

All Festival participants who have a booth or cart featuring items that would be suitable to highlight on any of these weekends are encouraged to participate. Please contact the Marketing Department if you are interested.

PLAY IN OUR VILLAGE

Norma Jurek

Huzzah! Let the games and fun begin. The site is greening and activity increases. Construction and redesign have started in the games and other areas in preparation for the 1995 Festival. Look for returning games and rides and the new croquet game. At least we all know the rules for this one.

DOLLS & ARMOR

Norma Jurek

Once again the RENAISSANCE DOLL COLLECTION and the ARMOR COLLECTION will be exhibited at the Festival. Both collections have had exciting additions. Look for armor pieces made especially for the 1995 Festival. Additional costumed dolls have been added as well as cottages designed and constructed by our own artists and site crew. Both adults and children will be amazed and awed by the Renaissance village cottages.

Emergency Procedures

We hope that emergencies do not arise, but if they do, we need to know what to do. Here are some guidelines to cover situations that may arise.

In the event of a life-threatening situation:

1. Call 911 from a pay phone, no coin needed.
2. Wait at the phone for police to arrive.
3. Contact Safety Services evenings. There are radios at the BLT and Campground.

~ Remain safe and well. ~

ADA

American Disabilities Act

Norma Jurek

Changes might be needed. We are currently working with the U.S. Department of Justice to bring our site into compliance to accommodate disabled visitors and participants. If changes are needed, we will be contacted.

MAF looks to this long awaited change as an opportunity to provide year-round entertainment services with on-site management of that department's administration, if not its artistic direction. Gary Parker, Artistic Director, is on board for another year of Renaissance history. Welcoming Gary back is Janell Stevens (former costume director and event manager for MAF).

This will be Janell's 4th year with MRF working in various capacities. Last year, although an event manager at another site, Janell began the Renaissance Doll and Armour Collections and facilitated the Best New Act for 1994's appearance at our show... the May Pole. Janell spent the past year using her theatre background and creativity to plan, book acts for, and produce another MAF project, but has once again settled into the offices, ready for a new commitment. The reason for her extended welcome to Gary Parker is that she will be assuming administrative duties as the Entertainment Director leaving Gary free to pursue his work of insuring great entertainment at MRF. While Gary is busy working with you individually on artistic aspects of your act/character, and continuing his excellent work with the Academy, Janell will be handling the less entertaining aspects of your dealings with MAF... contracts, grids, passes, comps and administrative duties.

She's looking forward to working with a new aspect of MRF, and to working with Gary in providing our patrons with quality entertainment for our 1995 anniversary season.

- COSTUME SHOP SERVICES -
Jeannie Bautz, Costume Director

The spring of 1995 finds the costume shop diligently working on a new befeater costume for the jester puppet. The new banners for the 25th Anniversary, the Pavilion and many more are being created.

Costumes must be approved by costume shop staff. Please remember to send a fabric swatch and photo to Mid-America Festivals office to my attention.

Participants will be immortalized in our book this year! Please submit your photos with your character name and/or location on festival grounds to the office.

A part of my job is to help improve the costumes for the current year which supports the festival's ambience. I will be happy to work with you and help you decide which costume is most appropriate.

ALSO, remember there is a costume swap at the academy in July; call me for details. Please collect any pieces that you won't need this year.

The costume shop will provide:

- Costume consultations.
- Simple costume patterns available for copying.
- Resources for ready-made costume pieces and other effects.
- Stitchers list.
- Historical resources.
- China flats and boots for sale.

Be aware of the top 6 no-no's often seen:

1. No hat.
2. No shoes.
3. Smoking in costume.
4. Chemises off the shoulder.
5. Shirts or sweat-shirts showing from underneath your costume.
6. Modern looking jewelry and watches.

I look forward to a great year and working with all of you.

WHO ARE YOU?

Please keep your photo ID or other daily pass with you whenever you are on site. Safety Services performs the important function of guarding our welfare. Your pass is their assurance that you belong. If you are asked for your pass, present it proudly! Safety Service is on duty before, after and during show hours.

Projects + Projects = People

■ Susan Klimek, Sales Associate

Wondering what's been going on in the Sales Department lately? Plenty!! First, I'd like to introduce myself as the new Sales Associate at MAF and express how happy I am to be part of the company. Since mid-April, strong efforts have been made to recruit bus groups to attend the 1995 Minnesota Renaissance Festival. The good news is, the efforts have been successful! As of this time, we have twice as many group reservations as we had at this same time last year. Our newest bus program is called Celebration of Cities. This program was designed to offer cities, in the five state area, a special Renaissance Group Package and to recognize them at this year's Festival. In addition to recruiting bus groups, we are also excited about our Festival and Fun Adventure program. This program offers patrons the opportunity to enjoy a day at our Festival, along with another day at a popular Twin Cities attraction. I'm enthusiastic about the progress made thus far, and I'm looking forward to a great season!!!

WANT SOME FREE TICKETS??

The group sales department is always looking for new accounts to offer consignment tickets. If you know of or work for a company that would like to offer discount tickets to its employees, please call Michelle Pattyn at 445-7361.

TICKETS WILL BE YOURS WHEN THEY SIGN UP !!

The Renaissance Festival will be hosting Dupont for their Convention Picnic on August 27, 1995. It will be taking place 11:00 pm on festival grounds. Please keep this in mind and bear with us on that weekend. What an opportunity for everyone to shine!

Faire Folk®

www.faire-folk.com

We're not going to the dogs! We are, however, trying to get away from them.

The Minnesota Department of Health has been raising its collective eyebrows higher each year about the number of dogs being brought into the site by patrons. Enforcement procedures have not yet been finalized. Several serious dog-bite incidents brought the matter to the attention of authorities last year and emphasized the need for stricter control of animals on site.

If you have a pet you are accustomed to bringing to the Festival, we strongly urge you make other arrangements. Firm rules and regulations will be in place, with a policy of strict enforcement. As in the past, all participant pets must have a photo I.D. and must be physically restrained and out of sight during show hours. There has been damage to gardens and turf by free-running pets during the week, so this year restraint of pets on non-show days and hours will also be expected.

Your pet, although a member of the family, might be more comfortable at home.

YOU DID WHAT? YOU SAW WHAT?

We love to let the rest of our world know what you're doing! The weekly Festival newsletters will contain word of individual accomplishments and awards if you will only let us know about them.

And each show weekend brings new "human interest" anecdotes. We'd also like you to pass those on. Take a moment to write down a small happening you've been involved with or observed. Our newsletter staff can do rewrites if necessary, so don't be timid or hold back on that account.

Newsletter items can be given to monitors or dropped off at Gate B on any Festival day. If it's more convenient, mail your contributions to the office, in care of Jean Wells.

Insurance Services

For those of you who need insurance services please see the following letter from our insurance agent to your attention:

Thank you for your interest in the group liability coverage offered for the Mid-America Festivals shows.

The information you requested is as follows:

- 1) The following quote is for food vendors and arts/crafts people only. Others can be done on a "submit" basis.
- 2) Coverage is for premises liability only, no product liability. (Product liability will be included in the price for food vendors).
- 3) Nautilus (insurance carrier) can handle concessionaires from any of M.A.F. Festivals (i.e. Minnesota, Michigan, Florida, Kansas City).
- 4) Deductible is $ 250.00 per occurrence.
- 5) Premium is $ 127.25. This includes festivals listed above. Any festival outside of M.A.F. Festivals would require a separate policy.
- 6) Coverage runs from June 1, 1995 to June 1, 1996 with the limit of liability being $ 1,000,000.
- 7) This coverage does not include building or contents coverage. This would require a separate policy.

To secure coverage, fill out the enclosed form, sign, date, and mail with check for $ 127.25 to Rothschild, Bell and Walseth, Inc. Upon receipt, a certificate of insurance will be issued. This coverage meets Renaissance Festival requirements. Please feel free to call or write if you have any questions. Thank You!!!
