Next time you see one of these illustrious soles, remember to thank them for being there and making your stay a safer and more enjoyable one. I could never do their job and truly appreciate them for what they do !!!

HUZZAH AND THANKS FROM ALL OF US

BIG, HUGE THANK YOU . . . from Michelle Pattyn

As everyone knows, DuPont has come and gone and the party would not have been such a success without the help of several entertainers, crafters and MAF staff. As the CLMA people were leaving, I heard nothing but positive remarks about the good time they had.

Just a few remarks that were given . . .

"This was better than Disney"

"The food was fabulous"

"Nothing like this has ever been done"

Everyone deserves a pat on the back for all the long hours and hard work.

To the entire Site Crew -	Good job on the Big Tent!
BJ -	Way to light up an un-electrified area!
Marketing Department -	Thanks for understanding and all your help.
Sales Department -	Thanks for your support!
All CKC workers -	Thanks for the extra hours on an already long day.
Personnel -	Way to staff difficult positions.
The Food Guys -	Nothing but smiles around the food stands and under the tent -
Lois & Jody -	Thanks for jumping on the band wagon and with the craft element.

~ THANKS ~

Marketing's Top Ten Ways to Keep Your Sanity Through Labor Day Weekend (...and the rest of the Festival.)

10. Beer.
9. Make friends with the entertainers. You know, they are pretty cool people.
8. If you cannot go to the Badger-Colorado game on Saturday, bring the game to the festival.
7. Don't lock your keys in the car before the festival even begins. If you do happen to be so lucky contact Dianna Buckmann to find Rook and Mike...they'll call the sheriff for you.
6. Keep within a 10 foot radius of the FEAST MASTER, his powers only stretch that far.
5. Go to the State Fair on your day off. Watch them run around. Let them entertain you for a change.
4. Employ a realm-wide hunt for the infamous Mel Gibson and his kids.
3. Stage a MOCK photo shoot just to get the Safety Service men in Kilts. They will believe anything!
2. Keep a ready supply of Off Skintastic around just in case 800 people are outside without any bug spray.
1. Smile because there are only 9 days left of show, and 21 days till the Blue Barn party!!

Huzzah-ah-ah-aaaaa !!!

Attention All Crafters!

The Festival will once again be holding a Charity Silent Craft Auction during Art of Hands weekend featuring items donated by the Festival's talented artisans. Organizations benefiting from the auction are the Minnesota Museum of American Art and CERF (Craft Emergency Relief Fund).

The auction will be held on Saturday, September 9th from 10 am to 5 pm through a silent bid. A sincere thank you to all artisans who have returned entry forms and/or have dropped off donated items. Anyone wishing to donate an item is asked to fill out a Silent Craft Auction Entry Form and either drop it off at B-gate this weekend or send it with your friendly monitor. All forms and items received by Monday, September 4th will be included in the official program.

Please package all items well and bring them to B Gate, give them to your monitor or drop them off at the Festival office. We will of course accept donations until 9 am on the day of the auction.

We hope you will be a part of this worthwhile event! If you have any additional questions or would like more information please contact Norma Jurek or Diana Buckmann.

LADS & LASSIES...

COME TO THE HIGHLANDS

SCOTTISH GAMES....

Competition reigns at the First Annual Highland Games! A full heavy events competition will take place on Saturday and Sunday near the Irish Cottage. Professionals and amateurs will compete for prizes in traditional events such as the Caber Toss, Stone Throw and Hammer Throw.

& DANCES.....

The Minnesota Scottish Celtic Dance Association will host the First Annual Highland Dance Competition on Saturday on the Follies Stage. Stop by the Minnesota Coalition of Scottish Clans and research your Scottish heritage!

SHOP AHEAD

Rorma Jurek

It is time to start the yearly Christmas/ Birthday shopping at the Festival. Start looking now for the "perfect" gifts.

LET'S PLAY CAPTURE THE FLAG !!

On Saturday, September 3, there will be a game of capture the flag for whomever wants to play! Let's meet in front of the bear at 9:00 pm. Any questions can be directed to Shawn who works in the Traveler's Cart in the narrows.

ANNIVERSARY HALL

Rorma Jurek

Changes and additions are continuing to happen at Anniversary Hall. David is working hard to display more pieces from our CAP Collections. This week look for more silver being exhibited for the 25th Celebration year. Also, new dolls are visiting the village. Stop by and discover..

EAT, EAT, EAT AND BE

MERRY

Rorma Jurek

Our Food Independent Booths are continuing to create culinary works for the palate and hungry workers. I am doing my best to try all of the items. (Well, it is part of my job). Thanks to all who produce these food wonders.

Words of Wisdom From The Rookies:

Tim Benson, who will be returning to St. Cloud State University, is hardly ever seen, but we know that he is there for he is responsible for all the busses that we get. He sits at B Gate from dawn till dusk watching and waiting for the masses to arrive. However, when 7:00 pm rolls around, he changes his clothes and "Benny" emerges!

Words of Wisdom: "A telephone can be a salesman's best friend or worst enemy."

Lanelle Disselbrett, a graduate of North Dakota State University, joined the marketing department late in the season, but she caught the fever of the festival early. You will see her walking around like a crazy woman asking..."do you have a radio? I need to talk to someone in marketing." She has the responsibility to make sure that EVERYTHING is running correctly. No matter how far apart they are from each other.

Words of Wisdom: "Give me a cold Coke and comfortable shoes... I will be fine!"

Caro Emmer, A.K.A. "The Joker", who is returning to the University of Wisconsin- Eau Claire, joined the marketing department in June. You know her as the short little blonde with the HUGE smile. She has become the official gopher, and can be seen cruising through the festival, walkie-talkie in hand and laughing wickedly. She starts every sentence with "If I get you a couple of food boxes would you....."

Words of Wisdom: "The best part of the festival is the view!"

Jake Kocon, who is returning to the University of Minnesota is the most well known go getter of the festival...A.K.A: "Mr. Merchandise Director". He can be frequently seen in front of the Feast Information booth...how many reservations could he possibly have anyway? The rest of his day is spent satisfying the whims of the Marketing and Sales Departments...what a guy!

Words of Wisdom: "The true day begins when the last cannon sounds."

Todd Morrissy, a graduate of Mankato State University, had the honor of dealing with the CKK employees for the season. If you think this is an easy job...think again. He can be found walking around with an air of importance and talking on channel 2. He is always ready with a smile and a positive comment to keep you going throughout the day.

Words of Wisdom: "It is not how much you know, it is how much other people think you know. It is all by the seat of my pants, if you don't know...make it happen!"

Shawna Severson, a graduate of Augustana College, has had the pleasure of dealing with the Feast of Fantasy and all the Super America Stores around. You can find her sitting at the Feast Information Booth watching the realm go by and spends her time directing the patrons to the REAL information booth. When she finally does get a break, she can be seen dashing to the 900 comm. so see a certain person whose name we cannot print

Words of Wisdom: "When in doubt, just say OK!"

WE want to take this time to thank our interns for the splendid job they have done this season. They have put in the hours, they have made the calls. They have earned what it takes to make a seven weekend show come alive. With their time, effort, and fresh ideas, the 25th Anniversary Season was indeed an affair to remember.

Hear Ye ! Hear Ye !

Let be known to all citizens of the realm,
William Delacy, The Kings Champion shall host the third annual

Lord High Sheriff
Tourneyment of the Sword

The tourneyment is presented by the honorable

University of Minnesota Fencing Club

The Lord High Sheriff invites all citizens of the realm, whether noble or peasant, to participate in the Labor Day Weekend open tourneyment. Patrons are strictly forbidden to enter the competition. All those whom deem themselves brave, man or woman, shall seek out the Fencing Ring and proclaim themselves worthy of information for entry. A bounty shall be presented to the top three competitors. On completion of the contest all competitors shall be ranked.

Those who are feeble or unwanting to compete shall find themselves watching the festivities at the Fencing Ring.
The Squires event shall commence at 7:30 pm Saturday, September 2nd and the Knights event at 7:30 pm on Sunday the 3rd.

In an endeavor for a fair and balanced competition without fault The Lord High Sheriff shall hold himself out of the competition, yet at his discretion may challenge the victor to a first blood duel.
